
Need help?

Are you in a difficult situation and unsure how to handle it? Do you want to help someone around you, but don't know where to start?

Not sure who to contact?

Would you like to report an incident? Do you have a safety concern or suggestion related to the University? Each faculty and university unit has its own safety coordinator whom you can contact to report an incident or share concerns.

You can also contact the Charles University Rectorate Security and Occupational Safety Department directly.
